Scalish Sets Sights on 2010 Bassmaster Classic Title

Pro angler, Frank Scalish, joins the nation's top fishermen in the sport's foremost event

AVON, OH (February 17, 2010) – Professional angler, Frank Scalish, is poised to begin his run at the 2010 Bassmaster Classic, the country's premier freshwater fishing tournament event.

Scalish, sponsored by OSI® Professional Adhesives and Sealants, has been fishing professionally since 2003. He has fished in the Bassmaster Northern and Southern Opens and on the FLW Series. In 2006, Scalish qualified for the Bassmaster Elite Series. Then, in the 2008-2009 fishing season, he won the BASS season long points race by 120 points. This win earned Scalish his spot in the 2010 Bassmaster Classic and a top 100 ranking with eligibility for the 2010 Bassmaster Elite Series.

A native of Cleveland Heights, OH, Scalish honed his fishing skills on the waters of Lake Erie. He still resides in Northeast Ohio with his wife and three children. In addition to his tournament fishing, Scalish writes the "Lake Erie Chronicles" blog for ESPN's Bassmaster Opens. OSI Adhesives and Sealants, makers of QUAD® Advanced Formula Sealant and the OSI® WINTeQ™ Window Installation System, the first compatible window installation system, has sponsored Scalish since 2003.

The 40th Bassmaster Classic begins February 19, 2010 on Lay Lake in Birmingham, Ala and will feature freshwater fishing's 51 top anglers. The winner will take home a cash prize of $500,000.
